

More than 600 key players, opinion leaders, researchers and scientists will be gathering at the European Facility Management Conference - EFMC 2012 – in Copenhagen.

Take advantage of the opportunity to convey your experiences to the visitors of Europe's most important event on Facility Management and give a speech at this top-congress!

Among the motto theme “Facility Management: Global Responsibility – Local Acting” you can be a part of an extensive programme on a wide variety of FM issues, including:

- Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)
- The soft Values in CSR and Sustainability – in Relation to Economy
- Energy, Carbon Footprint and Energy Service Companies (ESCO)
- Operation-Simulation of Buildings (3D) and operational Buildings
- Future Workplaces (incl. the impact of ICT)
- Sustainable FM
- Information and Communication Tools (ICT)
- People, Planet, Profit – The Triple Bottom Line
- Leadership and Communication in FM
- The challenge to organize FM to support the core Business
(in Terms of Quality, Cost Efficiency, added Value)
- Implementing and Working with the European (and national) Standards
- Risk management and Crisis Management in FM

Of course you can also apply with another theme, as long as it fits into the general context.

Take the opportunity to join the topical discussion on the trend setting European FM conference – be a part of EFMC 2012 and support the event as a speaker!

Deadline for abstract submission: 19 October 2011.
